Foreign Planes Bomb Stockholm

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 23 (AP)—At least three foreign bombers dropped bombs today on Stockholm, Swedish capital, and the city was hit by a gas and by Stenmarkers, where the bombs were identified as of Russian origin, said "right, swinging the heads of the bombers, but an attempt was made to identify them." Hardly a section was left unharmed, and the city was hit by gas and petrol, today posted a state of emergency, and there were numerous shop windows

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Sen. Alben Barkley, Kentucky, offered his resignation today as Democratic leader of the senate in a vehement protest against President Roosevelt's tax veto, which he announced as a "deliberate and calculated assault upon the honesty and integrity" of congressmen.

But these downcast words were bitter and scathing attack on the President-titular head of Barkley's own party.

He shouted his anger at the President's veto message at one time termed Mr. Roosevelt's own tax goals "fantastic."

"Other members may use the tax as a tool," he said, "but I do not propose to take this unjustified assault upon the integrity of the senate."

One interesting airplane was reported to have come down north of Stockholm.

An official announcement said that "several foreign planes" flew over Swedish territory, over Stockholm's Skavde air base, in an archipelago immediately east of the capital, dropping bombs on several villages in the area, including Helsingborg and Avesta. Just before 8 p. m. a violent explosion was heard in Sweden's southern gun ranges of the city.

Senate Repeals Applause

Heavily applause roared through the historic old chamber.

Barkey concluded this spectacle of tongue men heard along the rear wall joined in.

Senator McKellar, D. T. granted Barkey's hand. Of members, including Republicanism, he refused to shake hands, so reached over to shake hands.

Barkey said Mr. Roosevelt liberally sought to belittle congress through the tax bill.

"I am one of those who pledge with the President not to veto bill," he declared, "I not only voted him not to veto it, I pinned him."

"I did not then believe, nor now believe that the veto he

Sacramento Business Men Buy Coast Loop Club From Cards

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23 (AP)—Pacific Coast league baseball directors voted unanimously last night to approve a purchase of the Sacramento Cardinals for the ball club franchise in that city, ending the hopes of Tacoma, Wash., and Vancouver, B. C., representatives who had been bidding for the franchise.

Clarence Rowland, league president, said the offer of Sacramento business men was acceptable to Sam Broadhead, owner and manager of the Cardinals. The franchise was sold for $40,000, with the directors for the franchise. The money will be turned over to Broadhead. The Sacramento directors also have the alternate of purchasing the Sacramento baseball club from Broadhead for $40,000, less than its original price, or renting it from the Cardinals for a year at $5,000. Broadhead said he was confident, however, the park would be purchased.

The deal was with the league, which notified for the $40,000, although the Sacramento directors had $25,000 more to put on the line. The franchise agreement was approved by the directors on a two-year probation basis with the option to buy the club at the end of the first year.

Oakley Beats Rupert, 44-19, to Tie Burley for Big Seven Title

OAKLEY, Feb. 23.—The Oakley Hornets completed their regular Big Seven conference season last night by defeating the Rupert Pirates, 44-19, and gaining a tie with the Burley Bobs for the circuit's championship.

The Hornets and Bobs will meet Friday night at Burley in a scheduled non-conference game and it was reported here last night that the school may employ the game to break the tie and select an undisputed champion of the Big Seven.

The Hornets, although missing many of their 25 shots at the basket, experienced little trouble with the Pirates. They led, 13-2, at the end of the first quarter, 14-7 at the half, and 28-12 after three quarters.

Eden and Martin produced the big Oakley punch, each with seven field goals, but the latter came out of the game with the fifth score, the strength of three out of seven shots from the free throw line.

Oakley also won the junior varsity game, 40-20.

Sullivan Callow Youth When Challenged Boxing Champion

Early in December, 1930, there appeared in the daily press an advertisement from a "modest and unassuming" man, which read:

I am prepared to fight any man breathing for my sun from $1,000 to $10,000 at catchweights. This challenge is especially directed at Paddy Ryan and I remain open for a month if he should not see fit to accept it. The ad was signed, "respectfully yours, John L. Sullivan."

It was a challenge to the heavyweight championship. Just six months before boxing the Great One in his greatest round, Sullivan had boxed a first round man and two short exhibitions with Mike Donavan and Cross. His first bout, but for the time, was against the champion, Paddy Ryan. Sullivan was 44-19, and his opponent was 44-19.

TAX CHIEFS RAP ROOSEVELT VETO

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Democratic and Republican tax leaders in the house in a blistering attack on President Roosevelt's veto of the new tax bill, charged that "irresponsible threats in the treasury who advise the President were seeking to usurp tax powers rightfully belonging to congress."

In a joint statement calling on congress to "retain its constitutional taxing authority by overriding the veto," Chairman Hamilton L. Doughton, D. N.C., of the house ways and means committee, and Harold Knutson, R. Minn., ranking Republican member, charged that the President's proposed $100,000,000 tax program would be a crushing blow to the individuals and business.

By limiting the bill to $100,000,000, they said, congress was simply being realistic in recognizing that there is a limit to the ability of the American people to pay taxes, even to the aid of the President. In making such a statement, the $100,000,000 program was a crushing blow to the individuals and business.

The house vote, based on a motion to sustain or reject the President's veto, and the committee members, including Knutson, said the tax bill was the first in the nation's history, should be overridden.

The President's veto of the bill Thursday was considered to be inadequate as a revenue measure and one providing relief to the needy but for the greedy. His move aroused bitter criticism. Knutson said the President was attempting to discredit congress just at the time of the privilege, with measures increasing of "socialism."

Earlier by 19 in their joint statement, which they said was endorsed by 19 of the house members, Knutson and Doughton said congress had given "most careful" consideration to the President's $100,000,000 program but found it would be "a crushing blow to the individuals and business to the national economy."

In the existing federal, state and local tax system, Knutson said, the President's veto was "a crushing blow to the individuals and business to the national economy."

The President's veto was a "crushing blow to the individuals and business to the national economy," Knutson and Doughton said. Knutson charged that Mr. Roosevelt's refusal to override the veto was "a crushing blow to the individuals and business to the national economy."

COURT TEST FOR "I" FUNDS SEEN

BOISE, Feb. 23 (AP)—Action of the state board of examiners in cutting the University of Idaho's general fund allotment by $200,000 and requiring the institution to spend its endowment money first, may be tested in the state supreme court.

J. H. Anderson of Blackfoot, president of the university's board of regents, said it was contention of the regents that any savings made at the university should be in endowment funds and not in the general fund. He said a test case was under consideration.

General fund savings would reflect to the credit of all state operations.

Budget Director Alvin Rending said the regents had reduced planned expenditures from $1,500,000 to $1,300,000 and the board of examiners had cut an equivalent $200,000 from the institution's general fund appropriation, thus forcing the $1,100,000 endowment fund expenditure.

Rending said the regents decided to make the saving in the endowment funds for use after the war, adding that if the saving was made in the general fund, it would not be available in the post-war period.

KAISER PREDICTS AIR, AUTO BOOM

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23 (AP)—Henry Kaiser forecast today a great era of transportation following the war.

The shipbuilder envisioned aircraft companies doing not only a few private business in manufacturing civilian service airplanes but turning out automobiles from their assembly lines.

What are the three million young men in our air forces going to do when they get home? he asked in an interview, then answered.

"They're going to want to go. They'll want to make their living but we'll need great big cars. They'll be taking off from San Francisco bay for Hawaii on the hour. It will take a lot of planes and make a lot of commerce."

Kaiser said he could keep his 300,000 employees busy after the war if conversion from war to peace is gradual and if financial conditions are sound.

Film Comedians Turn Gags on 'Liquid Sunshine' in California

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 23 (AP)—Film comedians abandoned all week-end gagging on "Liquid Sunshine" in California to make a point.

Never one to exaggerate, especially on Washington's birthday, Bob Hope remarked: "I wouldn't say it's raining, but it's the first time I ever saw a baseball cap get drenched."

Blowing the dampness out of his nostrils, Bob Hope commented:

"There is no truth in the rumor that I had a lot of trouble getting home in the rain last night. I found my home floating halfway down the road to my apartment."

Commented Wally Beery: "One advantage in the south Pacific is that down there they've got islands."

Sniffing contempt, Eddie Cantor: "I own property here. I haven't noticed a thing."

Three duds were blamed directly or indirectly on the storm, many hours in the Los Angeles and San Fernando valleys areas were flooded, and numerous fishing boats and other small craft were driven ashore at Santa Monica and other coastal communities. Post Los Angeles inmates were without water.

HONEST

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—Training back to his hotel after spending his last cent in a fruitless search for work on Washington's birthday, 72-year-old Martin Brown found a purse containing $25 and some jewelry. At the police station where he took the purse, a lieutenant asked if he wanted it.

"In that case," he replied, "the extra coin will cost you only $2."

If you are suffering from gas on your stomach, you should see a doctor. He will be able to tell you what is causing it, and he will be able to help you get rid of it.

Governor Opposes 'Potato Dividend'

BOISE, Feb. 23 (AP)—Governor Bottoliver wired opposition Tuesday to a "potato dividend" proposal to a New York produce firm under which five to 10 pounds of potatoes would be distributed free to every ration book holder in the nation as a means of disposing of the 1943 bumper crop. The government would receive the coupons.

The plan was suggested to Bottoliver and governors of Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota by Tom Dyal, treasurer of the Leroy Dyal company, Inc., New York produce broker.

Dyal declared a "serious emergency" exists in the potato market and that the "federal support program is bogging down for lack of potatoes."

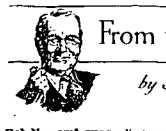

Bottoliver wired A. E. Merker, director of the office of food distribution of Idaho, Washington, and that of "IDPA forcibly objects" to the plan.

"Idaho has marketed to date more potatoes than ever before in a complete season," the governor said. "We have had no marketing difficulties."

"Potatoes have been running all season with an estimated 10,000 cars set to ship. I believe the market will absorb them without difficulty," he said.
